Matters in Probate.

Will of Eveline H. Rook, deceased, admitted to Probate and J. H. Rook appointed executor without bond.

A Big Train.

The overland train this morning was the largest that has passed through the city for a long time. It consisted of fifteen cars, and all were crowded. The larger portion were bound for Portland.

A Sad Message.

Mrs. W. H. Byars this morning received a telegram from Roseburg announcing the death of her aged mother, whose illness has been protracted through many days. Mrs. Byars takes the train this evening for Roseburg to be present at the funeral ceremonies.

Beautiful Fair Mount Park.

This newly planted addition lies in South Salem, high and dry, affording a grand view of snowy peaks and spreading valleys. They will be put on sale next week at prices ranging from $150 to $300 per lot, with liberal discounts on purchases of more than one lot. The Willamette Investment Company have the exclusive sale of their property.

They Have Arrived.

In speaking of fine new spring stocks of goods it would not do to omit mentioning that of the Capital Adventure Company. This firm, in the lead as always, is in receipt of the finest line of dry goods, clothing, dress goods, furnishings, shoes, etc., that have been brought to Salem for many days. They sell so cheap that all who see must purchase. Call on them and see for yourself.

The Track Completed.

This afternoon will mark the completion of the street railway track to the new addition south of the depot. To-morrow afternoon the cars will run regularly over the new line and the Capital city band will give a concert among the trees for the benefit of the school who are anxious to go to the suburbs and spend a few hours on the grassy lawns among the stately yews. This extension of the street railway line will be of great convenience to the citizens of Salem. It makes close connection to the city for those who are building their houses in the park and will ride there.

A Can of Baking Powder.

Yesterday a big lazy devil walked into a Commercial street grocery store and asked if he could have a drink. "Certainly, just walk back," he followed directions but remained a long while in the rear of the store room. Finally he walked out, and as he passed curiosity more than anything else prompted the clerk to peep into the stranger's pocket, which seemed to be comfortably filled with something. That something was a one pound can of baking powder. The man was followed to the street and confronted with his theft. He denied it, but as one can was missing from a full barrel near where he stood so long, his accusation was well founded. He tried to prove that he had purchased it at one store or another but finally admitted his guilt and was released after receiving a moral lecture delivered in Frank Welch's impressive style.

An Attempt at Suicide.

From a gentleman who has just arrived in the city from Melama, it is learned that that little city came near being the scene of a sad suicide the other evening. The would-be self-destroyer is a young man named Davis who lives at Mills City. He wooed the heart and won the hand of a young woman of Melama and the wedding day was arranged and the groom had purchased his wedding suit and the bride had arranged her trousseau. The day for the ceremony was approaching and young Davis called on the bride elect when she crushed all hope and aspiration by declaring the match off. Davis was wild with grief and departed for his home at Mills City, saying that he could not live without her. The same night he was taken deathly sick. Medical aid was summoned and he is now past all danger and will recover. It is supposed that he took a quantity of poison with suicidal intent. He came very near being successful. He had so far recovered yesterday as to summon the young lady to his bedside, where she went to nurse and comfort him.

SALEM SOCIAL NOTES.

Doings Among the Society Folks—Coming Attractions, Etc.

A NIGHT OF CORK.

Seldom does a Salem audience have the pleasure of an evening of refined minstrelsy. But such an opportunity is afforded them on Monday evening when the Good-year, Cook & Dillon company hold the boards at the Reed.

THE WORLD AGAINST HER.

The celebrated Grismer Davis company will appear before a Salem audience on Saturday evening of next week in this celebrated melodrama. The New York Sun says of it: "The first production of The World Against Her, a melodrama of English life, by Frank Harvey, was made on the city stage last night at the People's Theatre and the house was packed to its utmost capacity. Mr. Harvey's play had considerable success in England before A. M. Palmer secured it for this country. It is, beyond a doubt, destined to become popular here with the vast multitude of playgoers who like melodrama. The World Against Her is the story of a faithful wife's nobility and fortitude through a series of domestic calamities, caused primarily by the stupidity of a too-busy husband, and incidentally assisted by the rejected lover of the good wife. The play is full of action; all the incidents are stirring and probable; the language is vigorous, if simple; some of the character sketches are vivid, and every climax is ingeniously contrived and thoroughly effective."

A NOTED ELOCUTIONIST.

On Tuesday evening, under the auspices of the ladies of the Congregational church, Miss Ida Hines will give one of her popular readings at the opera house in this city. This gifted young lady is winning golden opinions everywhere. Here is what the Sun, Albany, N. Y., says: "Miss Hines gave two of her dramatic and humorous recitations—an entertainment of a degree of merit seldom equaled. The scene from 'Romeo and Juliet' was charming. We can emphasize as true all that has been said of her. Her power of factual characterization was fine. In a word her whole bearing and reading was all that could be expected and was thoroughly appreciated."

A DOKKY PARTY.

The Old Folks' whist club met at the residence of E. M. Waite on Thursday evening. There were present, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Chadwick, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Breyman, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Major Geo. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Richardson, Mrs. Skinner, Mrs. Everding and Mrs. Bart of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Waite. After the usual number of games, a beautiful lunch was served, when a pleasant half hour was passed in "pinning the donkey." Prizes were awarded to the most successful and the least fortunate, and a great deal of mirth was occasioned by the movements of those taking part. At eleven o'clock all departed, well pleased with the amusement of the evening.

OLD FOLKS DANCING CLUB.

The last meeting of this popular club for the season was held last evening, in the beautiful hall in the State Insurance block. The following members of the club were present: Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hirsch, Mr. and Mrs. S. Church, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Waite, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Breyman, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Pearce, Mr. and Mrs. Werner Breyman, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lafore, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Cottle, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Gatch, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Moore, and one or two other couples whose names could not be learned. Among the invited guests were Mrs. H. Everding and Mrs. F. Bartels of Portland, and Miss Ada Breyman of Salem, and one or two others the informant could not remember. The occasion was a very pleasant one and the club adjourned at twelve o'clock, well pleased with the amusements of the evening, and especially with its enjoyable success during the entire season.

A STRAWBERRY SOCIAL.

Protection lodge A. O. U. W. have in contemplation a strawberry social. They propose appropriating the first berries of the season for this occasion, which being the case, the social will no doubt occur in about three weeks. It will be a pleasant affair, as Protection lodge is noted for its pleasant gatherings.

AN EASTER SOCIAL.

Easter will be observed in the M. E. church as follows: Sermon at 10:30 a. m. Subject, "Unbelief Run Out." Evening, 7:30, a grand concert by the Sunday school, assisted by the choir. No effort will be spared to make this concert a success.

Extra seats provided. All welcome.

THE PHILODROMANS.

The Philodromian society last night at their meeting elected E. A. Anderson president and O. M. Nelson sergeant, J. T. Matthews having resigned the former honor and A. W. Bowersox the latter. The debate was full of interest. The subject, Resolved: That Mormonism should be abolished, was well represented on both sides. President Rigby rendered a decision favoring the affirmative. The point of discussion related more particularly to polygamy than it did to Mormonism proper. But the decision was just and was well received by the contestants for honors.

BRIDGE VIEWERS' REPORT.

There Will Probably Be Two New Bridges Across the Santiam.

A. Coolidge, W. B. Culver, and David Simpson, appointed by the county court of Marion county to make views upon the proposed bridge across the Santiam river at Jefferson, viewed the site and made their report to-day. In their judgment the best and cheapest location for a bridge at that point, would be within sixty to one hundred feet of the railroad bridge now crossing the Santiam. The full length required for such bridge would be 395 feet with a Marion county approach of 75 feet and Linn county of 40 feet. The height of bridge from water at present stage 27 feet, depth of water 15 feet, being on a level with the railroad bridge. They are of the opinion that a good and substantial bridge can be built for the sum of $10,000.

The county court of Linn county has taken no action in the matter as yet, no petition having been presented to them.

The committee appointed by the Marion county court to make a view of the proposed location of a bridge across the Santiam at Stanton have not yet made their report, although the view has been made. It is understood the viewers favor the location of a bridge across the river at this point and so shall make their report. In this matter Linn county is directly interested, having presented petitions and appointed viewers. The proposed bridge will cost not less than $20,000 and the county court of Linn county has agreed to bear half the expense, provided that it be not above $10,000.

This bridge would cross the river where it is 233 feet from bank to bank, requiring a bridge 675 feet long to properly span it. The place selected as the most suitable site is at the point where the ferry lands, being on the line of the main county road.

Articles of Incorporation.

The following articles of incorporation were filed with the secretary of state to-day:

The citizens of Yamhill county have formed an association to be known as the Chehalis mountain cemetery association of Yamhill county, whose object is to hold land for burial purposes, obtained by gift or otherwise. J. B. David, W. E. Davis and J. O. Guston were elected trustees.

The Eagle woolen mills company of Brownsville, with $75,000 capital stock, divided into 750 shares at $100 each, the principle office to be at Brownsville, Oregon. The object of this company is to manufacture and sell, either by retail or wholesale any or all kinds of woolen cloth or as may be manufactured at such a mill. The incorporators are H. Feely, W. B. Kirk, J. Brown, P. Hume and R. S. Thompson.

A Drunken Brawl.

That was a bloody fight in progress at the Capital saloon last evening when the police whistle sounded, and in a few seconds of time officers Glaze and Lake were on the scene and promptly arrested the two combatants, Len Swartz and Wm. Randall. They were doing some desperate fighting and had not the peace officers arrived on the scene as soon as they did, some desperate work would have been done. They appeared before Recorder Conn this morning and replenished the city treasury to the amount of $18.45 each.

Among The Sick.

Rev. J. W. Harris is no better. He is gradually growing weaker and continues to refuse substantial nourishment. His recovery is impossible. Mrs. Frazer, the aged mother of Mrs. Humphrey who lives on Court street, is no better to-day. The cancerous affection of the stomach has greatly weakened her and it is feared she can live but little longer.

A New Post G. A. R.

Application has been made by the old soldiers of Newberg, Yamhill county, for a charter for the establishment of a new post of the Grand army of the republic. The organization will be completed with sixteen charter members. The charter will be granted at once and the post will be installed soon.
